"Section 9. Disposition of Property in Community Improvement Area

(b) Competitive bidding procedures

The authority may dispose of real property in a community improvement area to private persons only under such reasonable competitive bidding procedures as it shall prescribe subject to the provisions hereinafter set forth. The authority must by public notice, by publication twice in ten days in a newspaper having a general circulation in the community (thirty days prior to the execution of any contract to sell, lease, or otherwise transfer real property and prior to the delivery of any instrument of conveyance with respect thereto under the provisions of this Section), invite proposals from, and make available all pertinent information to, private redevelopers or any persons interested in undertaking to redevelop or rehabilitate a community improvement area or any part thereof. Such notice shall identify the area, or portion thereof, and shall state that proposals shall be made by those in interest within thirty days after publication of said notice, and that such further information as is available may be obtained as such office as shall be designated in said notice. The authority shall consider all such redevelopment or rehabilitation proposals and the financial and legal ability of the persons making such proposals to carry them out, and may negotiate with any persons for proposals for the purchase, lease, or other transfer of any real property acquired by the authority in the community improvement area. The authority may accept such proposal as it deems to be in the public interest and in furtherance of the purposes of this Act; however, a notification of intention to accept such proposal shall be filed with the local governing body not less than thirty days prior to any such acceptance. Such notice shall be a public record and shall include:

(1) The name of the redeveloper or purchaser, together with the names of its officers and principal members of shareholders and investors and other interested parties.

(2) The redeveloper's estimate of the cost of any residential development and rehabilitations.

(3) The redeveloper's estimate of rentals and sales prices of any proposed housing involved in such redevelopment and rehabilitation.

Thereafter, the authority may execute such contract in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (a) and deliver acts of sale, leases, and other instruments and take all steps necessary to effectuate such contract. The competitive bidding procedures provided for by this Subsection shall not apply to disposition of property to public bodies or nonprofit corporations or institutions.

(d) Any real property acquired pursuant to Section 6, paragraph (d)(~~+~~) may be disposed of without regard to other provisions of this Section if the local governing body has consented to the disposal. Real property acquired in accordance with a community improvement plan may be disposed of to a public body for public reuse or to a ~~non-profit corporation or an~~ institution without regard to the provisions of this Section.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, where the municipality is situated in an area designated as a redevelopment area under the Federal Area Redevelopment Act (Public Law 87-27), or any act supplementary thereto, land in a community improvement project area designated under the community improvement plan for industrial or commercial uses may be disposed of to any public body or ~~non-profit corporation~~ for subsequent disposition as promptly as practical by the public body or ~~corporation~~ for redevelopment in accordance with the community improvement plan, and only the purchaser from or lessee of the public body, ~~or corporation~~, and their assignees, shall be required to assume the obligation of beginning the building of improvements within a reasonable time. Any disposition of land to a public body or ~~corporation~~ under this Subsection shall be at its fair value for uses in accordance with the community improvement plan.
